The Opening Prayer

Loving God,
we pray to you for those we love, but see no longer. Grant them your peace, let light perpetual shine upon them, and in your loving wisdom and almighty power, work in them the good purpose of your perfect will; through Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Dear friends in Christ, as we turn our hearts and minds to worship God, our creator let us confess our sins.
Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us, that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your name. Amen.

Merciful God,
grant to your faithful people pardon and peace, that we may be cleansed from all our sins and serve you with a quiet mind;
through Jesus Christ our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.
Amen.

The Gospel John 6: 37-40
The Rev. Canon Tom Patterson

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ
according to John.

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ
At the conclusion of the Gospel:

The Gospel of Christ
Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

Homily The Rev. Canon Lorne Mitchell

Music O God, Our Help in Ages Past

Let us say together:

Hear, O Israel,
The Lord our God, the Lord is one.
Love the Lord your God
With all your heart,
With all your soul,
With all your mind,
And with all your strength.

This is the first commandment.
The second is like it:
Love your neighbour as yourself.

There is no commandment greater than these.

Prayers of the People
Led by: Christopher Cantlon

We pray to God the Creator, saying:

Leader: God, in your mercy,
People: Hear our prayer.

Gracious God,
you have heard the prayers of your faithful people; Grant our requests as may be best for us. This we ask in the name of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Music Lead Us, Heavenly Father Lead Us

Thank you, O Lord, our maker; for everything in heaven and on earth is yours.
All things come from you,
and of your own do we give you. Amen

Prayer of St. John Chrysostom

Almighty God, you have given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common prayers to you, and you have promised through your well-beloved Son that when two or three are gathered together you will hear their requests. Fulfill now our desires and petitions, as may be best for us, granting us in this world knowledge of your truth, and in the age to come eternal life; for you, Father, are good and loving, and we glorify you through your Son Jesus Christ our Lord, in the Holy Spirit, now and for ever.
Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Officiant Gathering our prayers and praises into one, let us pray as our Saviour taught us,

All Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and forever. Amen.

Doxology

Glory to God
whose power, working in us, can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine.
Glory to God from generation to generation, in the Church and in Christ Jesus, for ever and ever. Amen.

May the God of hope fill us with all joy and peace in believing through the power of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

THANK YOU SO MUCH FOR BEING HERE!

Welcome everyone!

This Fall there will only be one service at 10:30 am each Sunday. Please register with Karen Haslam (519-273-5398) for every Sunday service. There will be no 8:30 am Sunday services planned at this time. One reason for this is the need to sanitize the church after each service.

During the service, please note:

1. Masks will be required in the building as required by government regulations. People are asked to bring their own. However, there will be masks available for those who do not have them.
2. People attending will be required to sign in. This is necessary for contact tracing required by both the government and diocese.
3. Orders of service will be in the pew where you sit. We are asked to take these home after the service. There are no books in the pews.
4. Hand sanitizers will be available at check in and throughout the church.
5. Washroom facilities will be limited to one washroom in the upper hall and one accessible washroom next to the office. The washrooms under the narthex are closed.
6. After checking in, ushers will point you to your seats. Social distancing of 6 feet has been considered both in access to and in the seating pattern. To maximize the number allowed in the church you will be shown to a seat and the church filled in order. This means that you will likely not be able to sit at your normal location. Once seated, we ask that you do not move around the nave. Physical greetings cannot be allowed. There will be no social greeting or gathering afterwards.
7. During the service, movement around the nave will be very limited. There will be a simple procession and no recession.
8. There will be no choir or congregational singing. Music will be limited to instrumental; organ, piano and instrumental soloists. Singing will be limited to a soloist at the high altar.
9. After the service, the congregation will remain at their seats until ushered out of the church. The intent is that people will leave via the narthex door closest to end of their aisle.
10. We are asked not to congest doorways or areas directly outside so social distancing can be observed.

There are a lot of rules and changes. However, those planning the return to worship in the church are making every effort to make it meaningful and safe. If you have any concerns before, during or after a service please contact the wardens or our back to church coordinator, Rick Falshaw.

In Flanders Fields

by John McCrae, May 1915

In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.

Inspiration for the poem — In Flanders Fields

During the Second Battle of Ypres, a Canadian artillery officer, Lieutenant Alexis Helmer, was killed on 2 May, 1915 by an exploding shell. He was a friend of the Canadian military doctor Major John McCrae.

John was asked to conduct the burial service owing to the chaplain being called away on duty elsewhere. It is believed that later that evening John began the draft for his famous poem 'In Flanders Fields'.
